

2011 Scholarship Recipients

The Board of Directors of Elizabeth Edgar Hall, a local Jacksonville non-profit, is honored to present the 2011 scholarship recipients. This group of diverse young women is impressive and presents a wide range of talents and career ambitions. As they pursue their dreams of higher education and a desire to make their communities and their world a better place, we are pleased to be a part of that process by awarding monies for education from accredited universities in Jacksonville.
